

Review

Complete the sentences with present perfect and JUST, EVER or NEVER

Bill _____ (send) an e-mail to his parents. Now, he's going to have lunch.

Bob _____ (find) a new article about Leonardo Da Vinci. He's going to read it now.

Has Tom _____ cooked fish? No, he's never cooked fish.

I _____ (buy) this dress. Do you like it?

I _____ (be) to London. This is my first time.

I _____ (skate) on the skating-rink, but I came here last week to see my friends.

Kate _____ (meet) this person, but she thinks they will be friends in the future.

Liz _____ (get) the driver's license. She was worried in the morning, but she's very happy now!

Laura _____ (book) a flight and she doesn't know how to do it.

Sam _____ (play) a football match, he's still sweating!

She _____ (invite) her friends to the party. She sent them a text.

They _____ (finish) their English test. They're still nervous about it.

Have you _____ (see) the Eiffel Tower? Yes, I visited Paris two years ago.

I'm sorry! They're not at home. They _____ (go) to the cinema.

They have _____ (fly) in the helicopter. They're scared of the heights.

We _____ (read) about that new vaccine... Are you sure it exists?

We _____ (travel) by ferry and by train, but we have _____ (travel) by plane.

Have you _____ (visit) Madrid? No, but I'd love to!