

An incredible story!!

A) This is the story of an Australian 16-year-old boy called Shane Peters who got away from a crocodile attack.
Match the sentences to the pictures.

1. Oh, no! Don't kick me.

A)

2. Please! Don't pull me!!

B)

3. You mustn't punch anybody.

C)

B) Listen to the radio broadcast and decide: true or false?

Correct the false sentences in the box © below.

1. Shane was helping his father in the garden. TRUE - FALSE
2. He decided to swim in the lake. TRUE - FALSE
3. While he was swimming, he heard a splash. TRUE - FALSE
4. He saw a small crocodile which was swimming towards him. TRUE - FALSE
5. When Shane shouted "Help!", his father thought he was joking.

TRUE - FALSE

6. The crocodile took Shane's leg and pulled him under the water.

TRUE - FALSE

7. When Shane kicked the crocodile, it closed its jaws. TRUE - FALSE
8. When Shane stood up, he saw the crocodile right behind him.

TRUE - FALSE

9. When Shane and the crocodile were face to face, he punched it on the mouth. TRUE - FALSE
10. When he punched the crocodile, it turned and swam away. TRUE - FALSE
11. Shane quickly ran back home. TRUE - FALSE
12. Clive, his father, was shocked to see his son injured. TRUE - FALSE
13. Mr Clive Peters cleaned the bite on his son's arm. TRUE - FALSE
14. Shane became very popular at school because of this accident.

TRUE - FALSE

C) Correct the false sentences

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....