

1. Check your grammar: true (T) or false (F) –Simple past, simple present and present cont.

Simple past

- To form the past simple, we add –ed to the end of regular verbs
- To form the past simple, we add -d to the end of irregular verbs
- There are many different types of endings of irregular verbs in the past
- To know the past form of a regular verb you need the list of verbs
- Irregular verbs are in the list of verbs
- Irregular verbs always change

Simple Present

- The verb in the infinitive form comes with TO
- In a sentence in the simple present if the verb ends with CH we put only S
When the person is SHE –HE-IT
- According to the rules, all verbs ended in Y need to be replaced by IES
- The adverbs of frequency go after all the verbs
- We use the simple present to talk about habits
- We add S to the verb when the person is SHE HE IT OR I

Present cont.

- We use the present cont to talk about a temporary situation
- We add ing to the verb only in affirmative sentences
- We add the verb to be and a verb with ING to make a sentence
- We use present cont. To talk about likes and dislikes
- To make a negative sentence we only have to change the verb to be, we add not.
- We can use this tense to talk in future
