Hi! His name is Nicholas. He is 12 years old. He is from

Neiva and he lives there with his father, his mother and his siblings – Sean, who is 10 years old, and Diana, their little Princess, who's 4.

Their day start at 7 o'clock, when the alarm clock rings. Everybody gets up and gets ready to leave home at 7:45 o'clock. He usually takes a shower in the evening, so He just has to wash his face, brushes his teeth, and puts on his school uniform. They all have breakfast at 7:30. He likes to eat cereal with milk, and French toast or waffles. They all love pancakes and eggs with cheese, but they only have those on the weekend.

After breakfast, Nicholas catches the bus to school. Classes begin at 8 o'clock. Mom and Dad drive to work after leaving Diana at the kindergarten. His dad is a pediatrician and his mum is a nurse. They both work at the local hospital.

When school finishes, at 3 o'clock, Nicholas takes the bus home. He has a glass of milk and a toast and then he does his homework. On Wednesdays he goes home later. He has extracurricular activities. His bother Sean goes to the Internet Club and Nicholas goes to the Music Club. Nicholas wants to be a famous musician. That's why at the weekend He goes to the Institute for Performing Arts. He has drama, singing and dancing lessons, one hour dedicated to each discipline.

He has always loved music and he started playing the piano when he was 4 years old. At 6 he played several Christmas songs at a school party. He also learned to play the drums and the guitar. When he grows up, he wants to take a music degree at USCO, he must study hard to get high grades because they only have 35 places available each year. One of those places has to be for him!
