

Name:

Date:

Class:

.....

Simple machines

1 Complete the sentences using the correct words.

A pulley is used for or objects.

A is used for pushing an object up or down.

A is used for joining two things together.

A is used for pushing things apart.

A is used to transport things from one place to another.

A is used for moving objects up and down different levels.

2 Read and say TRUE or False .

TRUE

FALSE

- Some machines need energy to function
- Simple machines are which have few or no moving parts
- They don't need energy of a person to work
- There are six types of simple machines
- An example of a simple machine is a bicycle
- A pulley is a simple machine
- You can create simple machines by putting two or more complex machines