

- Fill in the gaps with the correct phrasal verb. You may need to change its form.

Keep up with – get on with – call on – take up – get at – get away with – cut off – call for – catch up with – put up with – look up – come up with – fall out with – look down on – live up to – stand for – look forward to – deal with – look up to – set off – cut down on

- a) I'll _____ you at seven o'clock and then we'll go to the movies, sounds right?
- b) The concert was brilliant - it _____ to all our expectations.
- c) She was _____ seeing the grandchildren again after five years.
- d) You run too fast for me to _____ you, but don't worry! Don't slow down. I'll _____ you later.
- e) My doctor says I drink too much coffee so I'm trying to _____ caffeine.
- f) He doesn't _____ his sister. They had a big fight a couple of years ago and they haven't talked ever since.
- g) She went to the hospital to _____ a sick friend.
- h) We _____ for London just after ten.
- i) You mean I shouldn't come tonight – is that what you're _____?
- j) I wouldn't _____ that sort of behaviour from him, if I were you.
- k) I'm not going to _____ their smoking any longer – I'm going to say something to them.
- l) We discussed different ways of _____ the problem.
- m) We were talking over the phone and suddenly we were _____.
- n) Anna _____ her mother a lot – she's her hero.
- o) If you don't know when the Berlin wall was demolished, why don't you _____ it _____ on the Internet?
- p) They've recently _____ golf.
- q) She _____ a new idea for increasing sales.
- r) She _____ people who haven't been to college.
- s) Everyone thinks he's guilty of the robbery, but it looks like he's going to _____ it.
- t) He left home after _____ his parents and then he felt guilty for it.