

2. Sir Winston Churchill certainly was a brilliant leader, who led Britain during World War II (1939–1945) and whom many people consider (считают) the savior ['seɪvjə] of the country. But to stop there is not to know the man at all. He was an outstanding Nobel Prize [nəʊ'bel 'praɪz] winning writer, a painter and a talented orator who is still quoted (цитируется) today. If you read one book about him, make it this one. “Churchill: A Life” by Martin Gilbert.

3. Saira Khan, star of the hit BBC series *The Apprentice*¹, is brilliant at encouraging people to realize their abilities and talents. In her P.U.S.H. for Success she shares her secrets and offers advice on how to become successful.

4. Here are not only the Tortoise and the Hare but a lot more amusing characters which have been entertaining and teaching people for thousands of years. The storyteller Aesop ['i:sɒp] lived in ancient Greece, but his clever little stories are as instructional (can teach you) today as they were long ago.

4. How can teenagers be encouraged to read more? Read the tips (советы) and explain why you agree or disagree with them.

To encourage reading: teachers should give students tasks for reports, give them lists for summer reading, organise meetings with authors, organise class and school book fairs (книжные ярмарки), open a bookpage in your class wall newspapers, recommend to watch films based on books, let students decide what's interesting for them, not to tell them what to read.

5. Write your portrait “I am a reader”. Would you like to change something in your attitude to books and reading?

Are you an intellectual reader? A non-fiction reader? A newspaper reader? A glossy (глянцевый) magazine reader? A fiction reader?
