

The Lion's Den

I. Study the vocabulary and read the commix.

Panel 1: King Lion: "You are all my good friends. I want you to tell me how my den smells."
Dog: "Oh Lion, I am your good friend, and I am not afraid to tell you. Your den smells bad."

Panel 2: King Lion: "GRRRRR! You are not a very good friend. How can you say that my den smells bad? Get out and don't come back, or I'll eat you up!"

Panel 3: King Lion: "And how do you think my den smells?"
Rabbit: "Well, King Lion, I can't tell. I have a bad cold, and I can't smell anything."

Panel 4: King Lion: "You are very clever, my friend. You have saved both my feelings and your own skin."

Panel 5: Rabbit: "What a fool! I am your friend, King Lion, and I'll tell you how your den smells. It smells like flowers."
Dog: "You bad monkey! You are a fool too! Get out and don't come back, or I'll eat you up!"

Vocabulary:
Den /den/ barlog, pestera
skin /skin/ piele
Smell /smel/ a mirosi fool /fu:l/ prost, neghiob
Have a cold- a fi racit

II. Match:

- | | | | |
|---------------|------------------|---------------|----------|
| 1 The dog | tells the lie. | The dog is | devoted. |
| 2. The rabbit | can't smell. | The rabbit is | clever . |
| 3. The fox | tells the truth. | The fox is | liar. |

III. Make up sentences using the words:

- | | | |
|-------|-------------|-----------------|
| Den | have a cold | clever |
| Skin | feelings | to be afraid of |
| Smell | eat up | smell bad |
