

Modal verbs

I. Write the most appropriate modal verb for each sentence according to the respective use. Read very carefully each sentence!

1. You _____ do your task right now!
2. Mom, _____ I go to visit my friend, please?
3. _____ I help you with something?
4. Teacher, _____ I go to the bathroom, please?
5. He _____ ask pardon to her girlfriend!

II. Read the next sentences very carefully, then choose the modal verb is most adequate in each situation.

1. He is smart, because he _____ (can / should) speak four languages!
2. She wanted to go to cinema with her friends, but her mom was angry, what did she should do? She _____ (should / can) apologize with her mom.
3. It's very cloudy and cold! It _____ (may / might) rain today!
4. In order to achieve your dreams, you _____ (can / should) practice the different values, specially, responsibility, honesty and loyalty.
5. Your teacher won't tolerate discipline issues, you _____ (can / must) be respectful with everyone in the world!
6. She approved all her subjects, for that reason she _____ (could / can) travel in the holiday!
7. My mom worked all day long! She _____ (may / must) be tired!
8. If you uncle has problems with other people, he _____ (should / may) go to anger control therapy.
9. If you want to have a healthy life, you _____ (can / must) do exercise.
10. In a cafeteria _____ (could / may) you change the T.V. channel, please? That News Station always lies!