

Primary Sources

Primary sources – records created during the time an event happens or by a person who actually experienced an event

Record what you can learn from the primary sources shown today.

Source	One thing I can learn from this source