

FCE: Adjectives and adverbs

Choose the correct word to complete the sentences.

GOOD/WELL

You don't look very Are you feeling OK?

Ask Sue what this word means - her Italian is really

STEADY/STEADILY

Since 1990, there's been increase in tourism to this town.

Over the past 20 years, the quality of hotels has improved.

LATE/LATELY

There have been a lot of strikes at the airport

The announcement said that the plane would take off

HARD/HARDLY

Sarah was so suntanned I could recognize her.

I worked extremely To pay for this holiday.

WIDE/WIDELY

Can you close the window? It's open at the moment.

Mark travelled in Europe when he was a student.

DIRECT/DIRECTLY

We can fly to Rome from this airport.

If you lose your passport, you should go to the police.

Are these adjectives gradable or ungradable?

Marvelous

Powerful

Decisive

Tremendous

Furious

Lively

Fantastic

Well-know

Bleak

Fragile

Romantic

Awful

Impressive

Fast

Unique

Choose the correct alternative.

1. When we arrived in Rome, the weather was awful.
2. Many of the monument of Rome are well-known.
3. That porcelain vase you bought looks fragile.
4. Verdi played a(n) decisive role in the development of opera.
5. When my father heard the bad news he was furious.
6. The service at our hotel was impressive.
7. I found the Colosseum in Rome unique.
8. Anna's two-year-old daughter is lively.
9. With no money and no job, my prospects seemed bleak.
10. Volunteers are making tremendous efforts to rescue artworks threatened by the floods.