

READING AND WRITING EXAM

Clothes and weather vocabulary

1. Write and match the number for each picture.

It's cloudy. There is storm coming.

Today is sunny. I'm going to the beach.

It's a windy day.

Today is not very sunny.
It's partly cloudy.

Ohh no!! it's raining. I have my umbrella in this rainy day.

It's snowing today.

What's he / she wearing?

3. Read carefully each sentence and complete writing the name of the person and using is or isn't.

1. Alice _____ wearing a dress, but she _____ wearing a blouse and a skirt.

2. _____ wearing a sweater and brown pants but he _____ wearing a jacket.

3. Sam _____ wearing a blue shirt and black pants, but he _____ wearing boots.

4. Pamela _____ wearing a white skirt and white blue t-shirt.

5. _____ wearing a blue dress and boots, but she _____ wearing shorts.

6. Nick _____ wearing a black t-shirt and blue jeans.

Can or Can't - Request

4. Unscramble.

1. open / Can / you / the / please? / window,
Can you open the window, please?

2. can. / I / Yes, /

Yes, I can.

3. close / the / Can / door, / you / please?

Can you close the door, please?

4. I / Sorry, / can't.

I'm sorry, I can't.

5. turn on / please? / Can / the / you / light,

Can you turn on the light, please?

6. can. / Yes, / I

I can.