

Sleep

1 Correct the underlined words in the sentences. Drag and drop the words below. There're 2 extra words

daydream dream falls asleep nightmare
snore wake up sleepwalk yawns

- I often yawn about arriving at school in my pajamas. dream
- Do you have nightmares when you're bored?
- My brother works very hard, so he often wakes up in front of the TV in the evening.
- I usually fall asleep at nine o'clock on Saturday mornings.
- I had a daydream last night. I was in a dark forest and a tiger was running after me.
- My father yawns really loudly when he's asleep.

Indefinite pronouns

3 Fill in the blanks with indefinite pronouns.

- Can you help me? There's something wrong with my car.
- I've looked nowhere for my wallet, but I can't find it.
- Does anyone know what time the concert starts?
- There's no one at the door for you.
- I'm hungry, but there isn't anything to eat in the refrigerator.
- There were 200 people in the audience, and everyone loved the show.

Question tags

4 Write the question tag.

- He isn't from Japan, is he?
- I'm working hard today, aren't I?
- Your sister doesn't have a job, does she?
- You don't like pizza, do you?
- Pho is Vietnamese food, isn't it?
- They speak German in Austria, do they?

Strong adjectives

2 Fill in the blanks with the words below.

disappointing disgusting embarrassing
frustrating hilarious nerve-wracking terrifying thrilling

- I didn't understand the book. It was frustrating.
- I really enjoyed traveling by helicopter. It was thrilling.
- The food tasted awful. In fact, it was disgusting.
- I studied hard, but I failed the test. It was embarrassing.
- That movie was so funny it was hilarious.
- I walked into a door on my first day at school. It was terrifying.
- I gave a presentation to the class. It went OK, but it was disappointing.
- We saw Horror House last night at the movies. It was frustrating.

- You won the marathon, didn't you?
- They didn't like the movie, did they?
- We have Geography now, aren't we?
- He was absent yesterday, wasn't he?
- They are your brothers, aren't they?
- We speak English well, don't we?