Animal Rescue Foundation (ARF) by Joel Hollis

ARF in California wants every cat and dog to have a home. It first opened in 1991 and lots of homeless animals have found families with its help. ARF uses the money that pet-lovers donate to feed and care for the animals. However, it also raises money by letting children have birthday parties there. When I visited the ARF last year, I decided to become a vet ... I want to help the animals there in the future!
