

1. REWRITE THE SENTENCES:

- a) If you have a headache, why don't you take an aspirin? (TRY)
 You should _____.
- b) I still find it really difficult to give public speeches. (USED TO)
 I haven't _____.
- c) I was decided to start the driving course, but then I didn't do it. (GOING TO)
 I _____, but then I didn't do it.
- d) Apart from speaking three languages, Karen is a fast typist. (NOT ONLY) _____ a fast typist.
- e) They are sure the thief broke into the house through an open window. (MUST)
 The thief _____.
- f) There's no doubt that Sam is going to pass the exam. (UNDOUBTEDLY) Sam _____.
- g) I really want you to stop smoking in the house. ('D RATHER)
 I _____.
- h) We are made to write every activity in our notebooks. (MAKES)
 Our teacher _____.
- i) We had bought the house before getting married. (BEEN)
 The house _____.
- j) Please, I really need you to make a decision! (MIND)
 Please, make _____!

2. COMPLETE WITH THE CORRECT FORM AND VOICE OF THE VERBS IN BRACKETS:

The Sadie Hawkins dance is one in which guys 1) (invite) _____ to dance by girls. This particular dance was coming up at high school.

Edward liked Natalie. Natalie liked Edward, too, but he did not know. Natalie 2) (wonder) _____ if she would be able to invite Edward for a dance: she was too shy. Her friends eventually persuaded Natalie 3) (ask) _____ him.

During the lunch break, while Edward 4) (have) _____ some beer, Natalie went up to his table and said: 'Hi, Edward. This song is for you,' Natalie said. He looked shocked. Natalie took out her guitar, which she 5) (not play) _____ for some time. Her friends took out their instruments, too. Natalie played an original song. The song was about how they 6) (meet) _____ on the first day at school. At the end of the song, Natalie asked, 'Will you go to Sadie with me?' There was a long pause. Everyone around Edward 7) (wait) _____ for his response. Edward said yes, but he didn't look too happy.

After school, Natalie asked Edward why he looked upset when she asked him out. 'I really like you, but I'm not a dancer,' Edward said. Natalie laughed. 'Who cares? No one is really good at 8) (dance) _____. Nobody has a handbook with instructions on how to dance. The important thing is that you 9) (have) _____ fun,' Natalie said. Edward nodded and decided 10) (go) _____ out with her.