

Name:

Date: Tuesday, June 1, 2021

Subject: Reading and Comprehension Classwork

Jack and His Toy	Jill and Her Toy
Jack, a very playful child, loves to play with his toys. He enjoys playing with them, but he spends most of his time playing with his red toy robot. He gets to play with his robot every day. Jack enjoys playing with it in his yard. Sometimes his uncle visits and plays with him.	Jill has many toys that she likes to play with, but she plays with her blue toy robot the most. She can only play with her robot on weekends. She loves when she gets to play with her toys in the garden. Her cousin visits and plays with her.

Write two ways to tell how Jack and His Toy and Jill and Her Toy are similar.

Write three ways to tell how Jack and His Toy and Jill and Her Toy are different.

Example: Jack gets to play with his robot every day while Jill gets to play with her robot on weekends.

