5   Choose the correct options to complete the dialogue.

Sam: Gosh! There are some really good runners in this race. I ^{0} will definitely / might lose!

Mike: You ^{1} will probably / probably won't lose, Sam. You're fast too. Oh hi, Tonia.

Tonia: Hi, Mike, hi, Sam. You ^{2} will definitely / will probably win, Sam – you're the fastest in our class by a long way. Why are you so worried?

Sam: Well, I ^{3} might / probably won't win a race against my classmates, but look who else is running in the race! I ^{4} will definitely / definitely won't beat them.

Tonia: Oh yes. I see what you mean. Well, you ^{5} may / probably won't have a chance – don't worry!

Mike: Anyway, which race are you running in?

Tonia: I'm in the 1,500 metres. I ^{6} probably won't / definitely won't come first because Sally Farmer is in the same race and she's the English Junior Champion at 1,500 metres.

Mike: Oh well, you ^{7} probably won't / will definitely come second then.

Tonia: I ^{8} will probably / will definitely come second, but Angela Edwards is quite fast too. She beat me last year, but I'm a lot faster this year so I ^{9} might / definitely won't run quicker than her today.

Mike: Anyway, good luck, both of you. I ^{10} will probably / will definitely be cheering for you both.

Tonia: Thanks, Mike.

Sam: Yeah, thanks, Mike. Fingers crossed!
