

Miss Cande's exercises

Last night, Tommy and his parents went to the cinema.
Tommy's father finished working at 9:30, and the movie started at 10 p.m. They arrived in time, so they bought the tickets and a big bag of popcorn.

The movie was great, it finished at 12 p.m., but when they got home, everything was broken. "Someone broke into the house while we were watching the movie at the cinema" the father said. Tommy's parents were not crying, but Tommy was. The mother called 911 very quickly, and a police officer and three detectives arrived.

While the police officer was interrogating the family, two of the detectives were looking for evidence in the garden. The third detective, Mary, was not looking for evidence in Tommy's house but in the neighbouring houses. Luckily, a neighbour's security camera was pointing to Tommy's house, and they could see the exact moment when the thieves escaped.
