Well done! You have found the coffin of Vlad the Vengeful Vampire! Larry the wizard helps you break open his coffin and retrieve the jar! As you open the jar, the sound volume returns back to Mathhattan. It is probably best to keep the volume down as you sneak away from Vlad's coffin so he doesn't wake up again!

Oops! No that is not the correct location of where Vlad's coffin is. Go over, check your clues and try again.
