

THE SUNSHINE SONG by JASON MRAZ

1. Circle the correct possessive pronoun, possessive adjective or subject to complete the sentences:

Well sometimes the sun shines on other people's houses and not my/mine/I.

Some days the clouds paint the sky all gray and it takes away my/mine/I summertime.

Somehow the sun keeps shining upon you, while I struggle to get my/mine/why.

If there's a light in everybody, send out you/you're/your ray of sunshine.

I want to walk the same roads as everybody else, through the trees and past the gates.

Getting high on heavenly breezes, making new friends along the way.

I won't ask much of nobody, I'm/mine/line just here to sing along.

And make mine/my/I'm mistakes looks gracious, and learn some lessons from mine/my/why wrongs.

CHORUS:

Well sometimes the sun shines on other people's houses and not I'm/mine/my.

Some days the clouds paint the sky all gray and it takes away mine/my/I'm summertime.

Somehow the sun keeps shining upon you, while I struggle to get mine/I/why.

A little light never hurt nobody, send out you're/yours/your ray of sunshine.
