

A) WHICH ACTION HAPPENED FIRST? WRITE 1 AND 2. THEN REWRITE THE SENTENCE USING THE PAST PERFECT.

1. When the police arrived (1), the drug dealer threw away all the drugs (2)
2. Because the owners came home (), the burglar jumped out the window ()
3. When the owners came home (), the burglars had stolen their television ()
4. The murder had already killed the victim (), when the witness saw him ()
5. The murder killed the victim () because the witness had seen him ()
6. After the judge read the sentence (), the man began to cry ()
7. By the time the judge read the sentence (), the man had already begun to cry ()

B) CHOOSE THE CORRECT OPTIONS.

1. Did the judge give you a short prison sentence because you didn't commit / hadn't committed a crime before.
2. When he got home, the unsuccessful mugger realized he had lost / lost his own wallet.
3. The woman hadn't shoplifted / didn't shoplift before bank robber, so this time she wasn't given a prison sentence.
4. The bank had already been robbed by the time the unlucky bank robber had arrived / arrived
5. Before he had come / came out of the fitting room, the shoplifter had put the sweater on under his coat.
6. When police searched the house, they discovered the burglar hid / had hidden the jewelry in the freezer.

C) JOIN THE SENTENCES. USE THE PAST PERFECT AND THE PAST SIMPLE IN EACH SENTENCE.

1. The Thieves escaped overseas. Then a detective found out about it.
A detective _____
2. The suspect was released from prison. The new evidence was found
When new evidence _____
3. The robbers drove away in a black jeep. The police new about it.
The police _____ that _____
4. The mugger took my cell phone. I couldn't call the police.
I _____ because _____