I. Read the clues and look at the map. Guess the place they are describing and find the Real Treasure.

1 To begin the hunt and find the prize, from the fire station move to where you can buy ties and pies.	2 Roses are red, Violets are blue, Find the next hint At the place you go when you feel sick.	3 The game is getting harder, but don't get sad. Go to the place with trees where you can play happy and free.
4 Spring brings rain, so tulips can bloom. Walk your way towards the place to watch films in a dark and big room.	5 Your guess was right, but the treasure is not here. There are a few more clues, just you wait and see. Solve this riddle to go to the next place: Which place has only two words but millions of letters?	6 Post office was your guess, and you did it well. There are two more places left. If you catch a train you may find it fast!
7 Sorry, the treasure is not here, but you may find it in a pool of water where people go in summer.	8 Oops! Your guess was right again, but the treasure isn't here. You will find it where paintings and dinosaurs meet.	9 You found it! Here it is. Did you expect gold? Did you expect chocolate chips? Museums are the real treasure. You can find and learn anything you please.
