

Gerund or Infinitive

He aims studying / to study better.

When did you arrange meeting / to meet?

What are you attempting creating/ to create now?

Real friends will never make/ to make you cry.

She avoids meeting / to meet strange people.

He has decided starting / to start a new life recently.

He is angry, but I can't help laughing / to laugh.

He hopes finding / to find a well-paid job.

He doesn't mind travelling / to travel alone..

How have you managed getting / to get a good mark?

He often offers me drinking / to drink coffee

She fancied drawing/ to draw unicorns 2 years ago.

Have your parents ever let you staying/ stay up late?

She promised doing / to do her best at the test.

Why did your friend refuse helping / to help you?

I really loved travelling / to travel last summer.

Gerund or Infinitive

I've suggested meeting / to meet after school.

It tends being / to be hot in Odessa in summer.

He misses seeing / to see his school friends.

How much does he want earning / to earn?

He advised her improving / to improve her behavior.

Don't waste time chatting / to chat online

Teachers usually encourage students doing / to do tests

The police officer forced the criminal stopping / to stop.

He seems being / to be tired

His aunt taught him swimming / to swim.

He has just tried defeating / to defeat his opponent.

He warned me not bothering / to bother him.

What would you like ordering / to order?

She can't afford eating / to eat fast food.

She didn't expect losing / to lose weight.

Kids can't stand losing / to lose when they play

Gerund or Infinitive

Her dad doesn't allow her going / to go out alone.

Do you enjoy visiting / to visit museums?

Did you really intend winning / to win yesterday?

When did he stop watching / to watch TV?

Can you imagine living / to live without the Internet?

Don't urge me leaving / to leave the party.

He prefers drinking / to drink tea every morning

They are planning practising / to practise tennis now

You must keep learning / to learn English.

You should remind me waking / to wake up early.

How much time do you spend cooking / to cook?

You must remember writing / to write a letter to your aunt.

