

Frindle

Chapters 2 & 3

Read the definitions and find the words in the text.

- _____ : a short break.
- _____ : the opinion that people have about what somebody or something is like.
- _____ : the act of being present at a place, for example at school.
- _____ : drops of liquid that appear on the surface of your skin when you are hot, ill or afraid.
- _____ : having a lot to do.
- _____ : continuous conversation, especially about things that are not important.
- _____ : knowing something or someone.
- _____ : a task or piece of work that somebody is given to do.
- _____ : to make someone or something late or slow.

Read chapters 2 & 3 again and answer the questions below

- Which subject did Mrs Granger teach?
 - science
 - language arts
 - social studies
- How many students were there in Year 5?
 - 150
 - 300
 - 475
- What did Mrs Granger write on the blackboard every morning?
 - a grammar rule
 - five definitions
 - a word for the day
- What did Mrs Granger send to the parents during Summer?
 - a letter
 - a book of poems
 - a vocabulary list
- What did Mrs. Granger expect every student to have at home?
 - an encyclopedia
 - a dictionary
 - Internet access
- What special quality made Mrs. Granger famous?
 - X-ray vision
 - eyes in back of her head
 - extraordinary strength
 - super hearing
- What is a "guaranteed-time-waster" question?

- How did Mrs. Granger respond to Nick's "guaranteed-time-waster" question?

