

Indigenous legacy Glossary

Match the words with their corresponding meaning. Write the NUMBER in the parenthesis.

- |                                   |   |
|-----------------------------------|---|
| Kulla Raymi (September 21) (    ) | 1. This celebration is known as the ancestral Christmas and it's a religious festival in tribute to the sun that has an enormous cultural and historical value.   |
| Mixed-race (    )                 | 2. Relating to or typical of shamanism (a form of religion involving a person who is thought to have special powers to influence spirits).  |
| Kapak Raymi (December 21) (    )  | 3. Relating to the indigenous people of the Americas.   |
| Amerindian (    )                 | 4. Celebration of the bounteous provisions from Pacha Mama, or Mother Earth. With the word pawkar meaning blossoming, and raymi meaning a ritual, ceremony or festival, Pawkar Raymi is also referred to as the "Fiesta of the Flowering of the Maize". |
| Inti Raymi (June 21) (    )       | 5. Something that is a part of your history or that remains from an earlier time  |
| Customs (    )                    | 6. Features belonging to the culture of a particular society, such as traditions, languages, or buildings, that were created in the past and still have historical importance.  |
| Shamanistic (    )                | 7. Traditional celebration which represents the beginning of life and exalts women as the ultimate representation of fertility.   |
| Heritage (    )                   | 8. A combination of groups of people who share the same language, history and characteristics.  |
| Pawkar Raymi (March 21) (    )    | 9. Traditional religious ceremony in honor of the god Inti ("sun").   |
| Legacy (    )                     | 10. Ways of behaving or beliefs that have been established for a long time.   |