SECTION 4 READING

READ THE TEXT AND CHOOSE THE BEST ANSWER/ 6x2=12 /

1. The 20th Century saw a huge rise in the number of books published and bought, due to a combination of rising wealth and near-universal literacy (the ability to read and write) in many countries of the world. At the end of the 20th Century, it seemed that the book was King.
 2. The early 21st Century, however, has seen the emergence of a competitor to the almighty book in the form of the e-book and e-book reader. From around 2006, e-books started slowly, with the birth of products like the Sony Reader and a few alternatives, which failed make much of a dent in the market.
 3. Then came Amazon, a company that had already revolutionized the way books were traded all over the world. Its e-reader, the Amazon Kindle, has been improving its sales steadily and might soon reach a breakthrough point. In the UK, for example ,Kindle e-book sales increased five-fold at the end of 2012 compared with the previous year.
 4. The biggest player in the e-book market is, of course ,Apple, with its iPad tablet PC that also functions as an e-reader. More than 12.8 million media tablets like the iPad were sold in 2010, a figure which rose dramatically in 2011 and is sure to do the same in 2012. Traditional book sales, on the other hand, declined 13% in 2011.
 5. Despite this trend, e-book sales still make up a tiny proportion of total book sales. In 2010 in the US alone, $11.67 billion worth of traditional paper books were sold, compared to just $49 million in e-books.
41. From around what year did e-book start their slow increase in popularity?
- a. 2002 b. 2006 c. 2011 d. 2012 e. 2010
