I. Read the following sentences and notice the underlined words.

It's always quiet in the country. Sometimes it is quieter than today. My grandfather says that our village is the quietest among all the villages in our district.

The underlined words are adjectives. But they are in different degrees of comparison. The first one is in positive degree. The second and the third are in comparative and superlative degrees respectively.

Positive Degree

quiet

Comparative Degree

quieter

Superlative Degree

quietest

Here is a list of adjectives. Write the other degrees of them. The first one is done for you. (Use a dictionary and check your work.)

Write your answer in the given box

Note: Usually short words take 'er' and 'est' as suffixes to form other degrees.
