Listen & Answer

Track 1. Breaking Road Rules!

What road rules do you know?

Listen to the track and say how many times you hear must and mustn't.

Listen again and answer the questions.

After you listen to the dialogue several times, role play it in pairs.

- How often must the driver renew her driver's license? _____
- What must she wear while driving? _____
- What mustn't she do while driving? _____
- What speed mustn't she exceed? _____
- What must the police officer give Carry? _____

Listen to the track again and choose TRUE or FALSE for the statements here.

- | | | |
|---|------|-------|
| 1. Carry's driver's license expired two months ago. | TRUE | FALSE |
| 2. Carry must renew her driver's license every year. | TRUE | FALSE |
| 3. Carry forgot to renew her driver's license. | TRUE | FALSE |
| 4. Carry was wearing her seat belt while driving. | TRUE | FALSE |
| 5. Carry unbuckled her seat belt because she stopped her car. | TRUE | FALSE |
| 6. Carry's cell phone was ringing. | TRUE | FALSE |
| 7. Carry was driving at 90 miles an hour. | TRUE | FALSE |

Focus on Grammar | Modal Verbs must / mustn't, have to / don't have to

Which of these sentences expresses obligation?

- You don't have to attend this meeting.
- You must attend this meeting.
- You should attend this meeting.

We can use must to express strong recommendation, obligation or certainty.

We can use must not or mustn't to express prohibition.

Example: You must speak to her, but you mustn't shout.

We can use have to to express certainty, necessity and obligation.

We can use don't have to to suggest that someone is not required to do something.

Example: You have to arrive on time but you don't have to be here all day.

Work with a Friend

Match the letters with the numbers. More than one option is acceptable. Then write about what you must or mustn't do in different public places. Then role-play a dialogue with a partner following the example.

Example: S1: - What mustn't you do in a park?

S2: - You mustn't make a fire and you must pick up your trash when you leave.

- | | |
|-------------------------|--|
| 1. make a fire | ☐ movie theater |
| 2. wear a seat belt | ☐ library |
| 3. touch the items | ☐ park |
| 4. smoke | ☐ while driving |
| 5. scream | ☐ museum |
| 6. talk on a cell phone | ☐ bank |
| 7. talk loudly | ☐ hospital |

Note this!

Have got to is used to express necessity or obligation.

Example: You've got to tell him the truth.

Gotta is a contraction of have got to and is used in informal speech.

Example: I gotta learn this for my exam.

Do not pronounce the first t in mustn't!
