

be: affirmative and negative (he, she, it)

Affirmative			Negative
Long form	Short form		Long form	Short form
He is	He's	Rodrigo.	He is not	He isn't	Rodrigo.
She is	She's	Carolina.	She is not	She isn't	Carolina.
It is	It's	new.	It is not	It isn't	new.

We use he/she for people, and it for things.

3 Look at the pictures and choose the correct answers.

1 She is / isn't in a city.

2 The car is / isn't blue.

3 He is / isn't a teacher.

4 She is / isn't in art class.

5 He is / isn't good at sports.

6 The eraser is / isn't in the pencil case.

4 Look at the pictures in exercise 3 again and complete the sentences.

- The city isn't small. It's big.
- The car _____ new. _____ old.
- He _____ a math teacher. _____ an English teacher.
- She _____ in English class. _____ in P.E. class.
- He _____ from Brazil. _____ from the United States.
- The pencil case _____ green. _____ brown.