

Book: Guess How Much I Love You
by Sam McBratney

Join the sentences.

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1. Little Nutbrown Hare wanted                 | to Big Nutbrown Hare's ears.  |
| 2. He held on tight                            | to go to bed.   |
| 3. He wanted to make sure                      | as I can hop.   |
| 4. Little Nutbrown Hare stretched              | to think any more.  |
| 5. Big Nutbrown Hare hopped so high            | that Big Nutbrown Hare was listening.                                   |
| 6. He was too sleepy                           | his arms.   |
| 7. I love you as much                          | as far as the river.  |
| 8. Little Nutbrown Hare closed                 | that his ears touched the branches of the tree.                         |
| 9. I love you all the way down the lane        | into his bed.   |
| 10. Big Nutbrown Hare put Little Nutbrown Hare | his eyes.   |
| 11. He leaned over                             | and whispered with a smile: 'I love you right up to the moon and back!' |
| 12. Then he lay down close by                  | and kissed him goodnight.   |