Sian's Birthday

Sian was turning nine that week, and her parents were throwing a big birthday party for her.            invited all her            to her house. That morning she was very excited because it was the big day. At five o'clock, the first            arrived. They were followed by many more. The gifts were put            a table, and the children            on the deck. For lunch, her dad had ordered                       it was Sian's            food. The kids            it all quickly. Then, her mom brought out a cake. It was pink and decorated in the shape of an 'Among Us' character, just like Sian had asked. The cake was            and delicious. The icing was even sweeter. Sian drank a            glass of milk. When they were done, it was time for the presents. Sian sat at a table and began to            open one present after another. She felt spoiled and grateful to have so many           . When            friends left, Sian            her parents a huge hug and thanked them for her perfect birthday party.
