

1. Write True or False for each statement given below

Leads from electrical items left on the floor may cause somebody to trip over.

It is ok to poke things through a plug socket to explore.

You should always ask an adult to change a light bulb.

It is safe to have a CD player next to you when you are in the bath.

If you touch something electrical with wet hands you could get an electric shock.

