

Question 1    One. What must the man turn off?

Woman:    Let's go or we'll be late. Did you turn off the lights upstairs?

Man:        Yes, but wait a minute – I can hear the radio in the kitchen.

Woman:    Oh dear. That's the television. I was watching the news. Can you go and turn it off and I'll start the car?

Man:        OK.

Question 2    Two. Where's the girl's pen?

Girl:        Where's my blue pen? I'm sure I put it in my bag.

Boy:        Oh, sorry. I used it to do my homework and I left it on the table in the kitchen.

Girl:        I can't see it.

Boy:        Oh, I know, it's by the phone – I used it again to take a message and forgot to put it back in your bag. I'll get it for you.

Question 3    Three. What will the boy do this evening?

Woman:    Are you going to practise your guitar with your friends here this evening?

Boy:        Matthew's playing in a football match tonight so we're going to do it tomorrow.

Woman:    Will you wash the car for me then? It's very dirty.

Boy:        Sorry, Mum, I'm going to go and watch Matthew play. I'll do the car for you at the weekend.

Question 4    Four. What animals did they see on their holiday?

Man:        Did you see any monkeys when you were on holiday in Kenya?

Woman:    Lots of them! But we weren't so lucky with the lions.

Man:        Oh, that's a pity! What about elephants?

Woman:    Not this time, but we're going back next year so maybe we'll see some elephants then.

Question 5    Five. What does the man want to buy?

Man:        Do you think this sweater will look nice with my jacket?

Woman:    The colour isn't quite right. What about that lovely blue shirt over there?

Man:        It is nice, but I've got lots of shirts already. I need something warm to wear under my jacket.

Woman:    Well, let's look in another shop then.
