

Countable and Uncountable Noun

Write whether the words are countable noun or uncountable noun:

1. Milk - _____

2. Room - _____

3. Butter - _____

4. Money - _____

5. Music - _____

6. Child - _____

7. Water - _____

8. Bag - _____

a / an + singular countable noun (a pen, an apple)

some + plural countable nouns - positive sentences (There are some cars)

some + uncountable nouns - positive sentences (There is some oil) any - we use any in negative sentences and in most questions.(countable and uncountable nouns) I don't have any pens. There isn't any salt. Do you have any sisters?

Choose a, some, any, how many, how much to complete the sentences below.

1. I always have _____ egg for breakfast.
2. Can you help me? I need _____ advice.
3. Can I have _____ milk, please?
4. We don't have _____ money.
5. We didn't see _____ people in the street.
6. Have you got _____ pen?

how much - we use with uncountable nouns

how many - we use with countable nouns.

7. _____ books are there in your bag?
8. _____ milk did you drink yesterday?
9. _____ sugar do you need?
10. _____ friends does Aayan have?