For questions number 16 to 18, read the following text.

Last weekend, my classmates and I went to the countryside to have a short picnic. Before leaving, we made some sandwiches for lunch. We left early to avoid the traffic jam.

After riding for two hours, we arrived at a very nice place . It was near a river with some big trees around it. We parked our motorcycle under the tree. Seeing the clear and cool water of the river, my friends and I decided to swim. After having lunch, we went around to enjoy the scenery. We saw some beautiful birds and butterflies.

After walking for about an hour, we decided to return to the bike and prepared to go home. Unfortunately, we could not start up the motorcycle. Finally after some time, we could make the motor start up, by pushing it.

We were happy although we were a bit tired

State whether the statement is TRUE or FALSE based on the following passage.

This is a story about a clever monkey. This is a very old story. Aesop, from the Greek, the writer of the story first told this story many years ago.

One day there was an old man who had a monkey. The old man was very fond of the monkey because the monkey was very clever. When birds came to the garden, he chased them away. He also helped the man in many other ways. The old man often fell asleep during the day in his chair. Then the monkey sat at the old man's side and chased the flies away from the old man's face.

One hot afternoon in the summer the old man was sleeping on his chair. A fly came and sat on the end of the man's nose. The monkey chased it away. Soon the fly came back and sat on the old man's nose again. The monkey chased it away. This continued five or six times. The monkey at last became very angry. He jumped up, ran to the garden near by, and picked up a large stone. The next time, the fly sat on the old man's nose, the monkey hit it hard with the stone. He killed the fly, but unfortunately he also broke the old man's nose.

The man cried very loudly, but it was too late. He lost his pointed nose. However, the monkey seemed to be satisfied. He smiled broadly.
