

REVIEW BEFORE THE EXAM
UPPER INTERMEDIATE LEVEL

1 Drop down select box: Common verbs: do and make

Which of these do you do, and which do you make? Choose the right answer:

an effort

military service

the washing up

someone a favour

your hair

an excuse

2 Multiple choice: Common verbs: take

The verb take is used with several different meanings. Look at these sentences and choose the correct meaning of them.

The rebels took more than 100 prisoners.

Its's missing

They captured them

I didn't like her

I took up judo this year.

I started doing it

Swallow them

You can use either

I didn't take in what she was saying.

I wrote them down

I'm like her

I wasn't concentrating

3 Join with arrows: Language for talking about language

"Chair, sugar, dog and London" are all ...	verb
"The" is the definite ...	idiom
He speaks with a French ...	article
"Once in a blue moon" is an example of an ...	future
When we make predictions, we're talking about the ...	accent
The "infinitive" is the basic form of the ...	nouns

4 Drag and drop: Common idioms with prepositions:

Choose the correct word from the boxes to complete each idiom:

balance	end	swing	pinch
	nutshell	run

We're very busy just now, but at a we could get the car repaired by Friday.

Of course good quality shoes are more expensive, but in the long they save you money.

By the time we arrived, the party was in full , and the music was deafening.

On , I'd say that it would be more useful for you to learn French than Spanish.

If you're at a loose on Saturday, why don't you come round and see us?

So in a , what you're telling us is that the company's losing money.