

Going out

1. Watch and match the person to the preference.

Cheryl

Bob

George

Marie

prefers a film

is more interested in opera

would love to see a play

likes rock concerts

2. Tick films are NOT mentioned in the video:

"An engineer's life"

"You only live once"

"Anna goes to work"

"Time to eat"

"You only live twice"

"An actor's life"

"The right hand side of the street"

"Anna goes home"

3. Watch the video again and complete the conversation or open the brackets and put the verbs in the correct tense form.

George: Do you guys want to go out this weekend? There's a great movie playing at the Glenwood.

Bob: A rock concert _____ (sound) better to me.

Marie: I'd love to see a play.

Charyl: How about an opera?

George: Okay. There's a rock concert Saturday night at 8:00 p.m. Blue city _____ (play).

Bob: Blue city? I _____ (love) them. Sounds good

Charyl: Not my style. I _____ (not/like) rock.

George: Okay. There's a play tonight at _____ at the Second Avenue theater. It's called "Conversations with food".

Marie: Sounds great

Charyl: At midnight? That's way past my bedtime.

Bob: No thanks

George: Okay. "Carmen" _____ (to play) at the City Opera, 8:00 p.m.

Marie: Great! How much _____ (be) the tickets? You're kidding!

Bob: Whoa!

Marie: No way!

George: Great, it's a movie then. "A time to run" is playing at the Glenwood at _____.

Waitress: A time to run? Oh, don't go to that. It's just awful.

George: Okay, how about "You only live once"? It's playing at Kendall also at 7:00 p.m.

Waitress: It's _____.

George: "An actor's life".

Waitress: Please..

George: "Anna goes home?"

Waitress: No.

George: "The left side of the street?"

Waitress: I _____ (to think) there are no more tickets.

George: So what's a good movie to see?

Waitress: There's a French film playing at the Bijou at _____.

George: I'm not a French film _____.

Waitress: It's a film about an opera _____.

Cheryl: Perfect!

Waitress: And a rock star.

Bob: Great!

Waitress: Who _____ at a play.

Marie: Wonderful! Thank you!

George: Yeah, thanks a lot.

Waitress: You are very welcome.

Marie: It'll be fun, Bob.