Teacher Ana: Hi, guys!

6th grade students: Hi, teacher Ana Paula!

Teacher Ana: How are you today?

6th grade students: I'm fine. Thank you!

6th grade students: What about you, teacher?

Teacher Ana: I'm fine too. Thank you, everyone!

Teacher Ana: Today, we are going to talk about your likes, dislikes.

6th grade students: Teacher, it will be like a review?

Teacher Ana: Yeah! That's right!

Teacher Ana: Well, let's start with you, Andryelle.

Teacher Ana: Andyelle, tell us about you favorite color.

Andryelle: I like black.

Teacher Ana: And what color do you dislike?

Andryelle: I don't like brown.

Teacher Ana: Thanks, Andyelle!

Teacher Ana: Now, Maria Eduarda. What is your favorite fruit?

Maria Eduarda: I love mango, but I don't like pineapple.

Teacher Ana: Ok! Thank you very much!

Bruno Gabryel: Teacher, may I talk about the animals that I like?

Teacher: Sure, Bruno! Go ahead!

Bruno Gabryel: Well, I love dogs, but I'm afraid of snakes.

Teacher Ana: Hum... I'm afraid of snakes too! Let's change the subject, please. 😄

Teacher Ana: Victor Hugo, what kind of sports do you like?

Victor: I like to play soccer, teacher.

Priscilla: Teacher, may I tell you what I like the most?

Teacher: Sure, Priscilla! Go ahead!

Priscilla: Well, I like to play Catch the flag with my friends.

But I'm bored with basketball.

Teacher: Nice!

Teacher: Class, do you know what "catch the flag" means ?

Students: No, teacher, I don't!

Teacher: Ok! Here, in Brazil, we call it "pique bandeirinha".

Students: Oh! I know it!

Teacher: Well, guys. We need to end our conversation now, because our class is almost over. We'll talk a little bit more on next thursday.

Teacher: Bye, bye, everyone!

Students: Bye, teacher Ana! See you soon.
