6. Vocabulary revision.

Vocabulary 1: Choose the correct options to complete the text.

I'm a scientist who studies natural disasters. I've seen many videos showing (1) wildfires / hurricanes / earthquakes as they happen quite frequently – it's amazing how much damage the strong winds and rain can do. The most dramatic video I've ever seen was of a (2) tsunami / volcanic eruption / flood. Huge waves like that are usually caused by (3) avalanches / floods / earthquakes under the sea. (4) Tornadoes / Avalanches / Droughts are really impressive, but it's more difficult to find video clips of them because there's rarely anyone on the mountains to film them and, if there is, they're too busy trying to escape the snow! (5) Droughts / Floods / Wildfires are not as dramatic as other natural disasters because they happen slowly when it doesn't rain for a long time, but their consequences are just as serious.

Vocabulary 2: Complete the text with the words in the box.

bang	burst	sigh	smash	yell

I watch videos of natural disasters to learn from them and help find ways to survive if one strikes. When I was little, I experienced a tornado and that's where my interest started. I can remember only the sights and sounds. I heard people (6) _____ . 'There's a tornado coming'. There was a loud (7) _____ as the tornado hit a car and threw it into the air. I could hear windows as they began to (8) _____ all around me. Suddenly a water pipe (9) _____ and we all got covered in water. But, luckily, the tornado didn't come any closer and, as it moved away, we all let out a (10) _____ of relief.

7. Grammar revision.

Grammar 1: Complete the text with the correct form of the word(s) in brackets. Use the past perfect simple or continuous form of the verb.

I (11) _____ (never, think) about natural disasters until I visited the ancient Roman city of Pompeii. Nearly 2000 years before my visit, there (12) _____ (be) a volcanic eruption in AD 79 which destroyed the city. Letters written by an eyewitness called Pliny, who (13) _____ (stay) there with his uncle at the time, explain that it had been a normal day until suddenly a cloud had appeared above nearby Mount Vesuvius. When the local people had first seen the cloud of smoke and ash, they (14) _____ (not, realise) what it was. Pliny explains that on that morning he saw his uncle alive for the last time. After his uncle (15) _____ (receive) a letter from friends that lived near the mountain asking him for help, he had left by boat to rescue them. He never came back ….

Grammar 2: Choose the correct options to complete the text.

On the second day, Pliny says that when he woke up he could see ashes (16) falling / fall slowly but continuously. He says that he saw a black cloud (17) come / coming closer and closer to them, making the sky dark as it approached. He heard someone (18) to say / say that they should leave. Suddenly everything was black. The ash was falling faster and it started to feel heavy as it covered them.

Pompeii had been buried in ash and rock for 1500 years until it was discovered in 1599. When you visit the city, everything is as it was on that terrible day. You see bodies of people and animals (19) lie / lying on the street. You can almost hear them (20) screaming / to scream for help. I hope nothing like that ever happens again.
