

Serving Others

Jesus Washes His Disciples' Feet

Just before the Passover Feast, Jesus showed his disciples just how much he loved them.

While the meal was being served, Jesus got up and took off his outer clothing and wrapped a towel around his waist. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet. Jesus used the towel that was wrapped around his waist to dry the disciples' feet.

Simon Peter did not want Jesus to wash his feet. But Jesus told Simon Peter that unless he washed his feet, Simon would not have any part of Jesus.

Simon Peter said, "Then, Lord, not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!"

Jesus washed his disciples' feet as an example of what his disciples should do for others. Jesus wanted his disciples to serve others just as Jesus served them.

Use the numbers 1 to 5 to put the events in the correct order. [5]

- ___ Jesus dried the disciples' feet.
- ___ Jesus wrapped a towel around his waist
- ___ Jesus wash the disciples' feet.
- ___ Jesus showed how much he love the disciples.
- ___ Jesus poured water into a basin.