

You are going to listen to three people speaking about unusual jobs they have. Read the following statements and decide which person says each one, speaker one, speaker two or speaker three.

(WRITE THE LETTER IN THE SPACE (A, B OR C))

1. I've sold products for animals.

- speaker one
- speaker two
- speaker three

2. Sometimes I look at people on a computer.

- speaker one
- speaker two
- speaker three

3. Modern technology has made my job even more unusual.

- speaker one
- speaker two
- speaker three

4. I've never met anyone famous while doing my job.

- speaker one
- speaker two
- speaker three

5. One of my past jobs involved me just standing somewhere.

- speaker one
- speaker two
- speaker three

6. I think this job will always be required.

- speaker one
- speaker two
- speaker three

7. Bad weather can cause problems in my job.

- speaker one
- speaker two
- speaker three

Speaker 1 - Why was he trapped in Wales for two days?

- the boat wasn't working
- he fell ill
- there was a storm

Speaker 2 - Why does she have a good view from the plane?

- they fly at low altitude
- she sits by the window
- Australia always has clear blue skies

Speaker 3 - What do her employers want to see in the companies' treatment of customers?

- equality
- generosity
- strictness