Clumsy goes to the forest and meets the squirrels. They are afraid of the spooky animal. Clumsy asks Mr. Beaver about this animal. Then Clumsy comes to the owl's house to know more and there the owl and Clumsy hear the strange loud cry. Then Clumsy opens the door and sees the strange animal that turns out to be a goat. The goat, Gracie, lived on the farm but now she doesn't know where her house is. Suddenly, the squirrels attack Gracie with the pine cones because they want to help Clumsy. Gracie runs away and Clumsy is angry with the squirrels.

Now the squirrels want to find Gracie. Clumsy meets the mole. The mole knows that Gracie went to the bog. The squirrels run away because they are afraid of the dangerous place. The mole tells the way to the bog and Clumsy goes there. Clumsy sees Gracie in the gloomy bog and he calls Mr. Beaver to make a brushwood road to save Gracie. But they can't reach the goat because there aren't enough trees in the bog. The squirrels come to help Gracie. They jump onto the birch and bend it down to Gracie. She grabs the birch and the animals pull it out. The butterfly takes Gracie to the farm. Clumsy, Mr. Beaver and the squirrels are happy.
