Half the fun is where you stay!

Traveling abroad is not always easy to do—tickets are costly, restaurants expensive, and cheap hotels are hard to find. To save money, one of the best options is to stay in a youth hostel. However, don't just choose any hostel. Stay in a place with style, or at least, with some extra fun.

Are you a big fan of rock music? In Zurich, Switzerland, a great and cheap place to stay is the ZicZac Rock Hotel. This hostel has around 50 rooms, and each room is decorated with a specific rock band in mind, including Led Zeppelin and the Rolling Stones. Enjoy the stay and rock the night away!

Looking for a room in Thailand? Try out the International House of Travelers in the town of Phuket. There you can walk through the nearby banana field, or take a romantic walk within the tropical garden. The hostel also has a lovely herbal sauna and offers traditional Thai massages. Don't miss out! There is also a sitting room for everyone with a TV and library with books in many languages.

Imagine the most perfect tropical vacation. Does relaxing on the beach watching the sun set sound good enough? Add low prices, and suddenly you're at the Seashell Cove Resort in Fiji. There you can relax next to the water in any one of their traditional wooden cabins or "bures." A vacation simply doesn't get any better than that!

Finally, backpacking through the North American mountains can be a fun but tiring journey. When you're ready to rest your feet, don't forget to stop at the Ottawa Jail Hostel in Canada. This is perhaps one of the most unusual hostels in the world. The best thing about this old jail is that in the morning you're allowed to leave!

1. You can meet famous rock stars at the ZicZac Rock Hotel.
2. At the International House of Travelers you can experience nature.
3. Each room in the International House of Travelers has a TV.
4. The Seashell Cove Resort is cheap and located near the sea.
5. The Ottawa Jail Hostel is one of the strangest places to stay in Canada.
