

A Person I'll Never Forget

A Dale was full of energy and spent every minute of his free time outdoors. He enjoyed going on long bike rides or playing football in the streets, and he was very good at sports. Everyone wanted to be in his team, and they were jealous of me because I was his best friend.

B Dale was no angel, but he was so bright and friendly that everybody liked him. Although he was often naughty, breaking school rules and coming late to lessons, the teachers were never really angry with him.

C I can still remember how he looked that day. In fact, his appearance never changed in all the years I knew him. He was taller than me, with a cheeky grin and untidy, curly brown hair, and he always wore jeans and trainers, even for parties and other special occasions.

D I met Dale on my very first day at school. I was standing in the playground, feeling afraid and lonely, when a boy ran past me and shouted, "Hello — my name's Dale! Come and play!" I accepted his invitation, and we were soon the best of friends.

E Dale's family moved away a few years ago and I haven't seen him since, but I'll always remember him. How could I ever forget the boy with the friendly grin who made my early school years so much fun?
