Last weekend we went to London. We walked in the centre of the city and saw lots of cool places. When we got to Big Ben, I asked my brother to find his camera. I wanted a photo of us with the famous clock. We had fish and chips for lunch. My brother asked Dad to get the biggest chips! After lunch, we went to a big market and I asked Mum to buy some books for me. Then my rucksack was heavy, so I asked Dad to carry it. In the evening, we went to the cinema. I didn't know what film to watch and my brother didn't know. We asked Mum and Dad to choose. It was a really funny film and we had a great time. I loved London!
