Phone call

A student is calling about an apartment for rent.

Write there is, there are, is there or are there to complete the phone conversation between the student (S) and the landlord (L).

S: I'm calling about an apartment for rent on Grover Street.

L: We have two apartments available. There is a four-room apartment on the first floor and a three-room apartment on the 4th floor. Which are you interested in?

S: I prefer a small apartment. _____ an elevator in the building?

L: Yes, there is. How many people _____ in your family?

S: Only me. I live alone. I'm a student. Is this a quiet building?

L: Oh, yes. _____ no kids in the building. This is a very quiet building.

S: That's good. I have a car. _____ parking spaces?

L: Yes. _____ 20 spaces.

S: How many apartments _____ in the building?

L: _____ 30 apartments.

S: 20 parking spaces for 30 apartments? _____ not enough spaces for all the tenants.

L: Don't worry. Not everybody has a car. And _____ a lot of spaces on the street.

S: _____ a laundry room in the building?

L: Yes. _____ washers and dryers in the basement.

S: How much is the rent?

L: It's $850 a month.

S: Is it possible to visit the apartment?

L: Yes, how about tomorrow at 6 o'clock?

S: Perfect. Thank you.

L: Ok, see you tomorrow.

S: Ok, see you. Bye.

L: Bye.
