

1. Write the word in the correct space:

precipitation - weather - humidity - temperature (x2) - wind - pressure - climate

- is the state of the atmosphere in a specific place at a specific time.
- refers to the general weather conditions in a particular area over a long period of time.
- varies throughout the day and indicates how hot or cold the air is.
- The factors that influence the weather are and

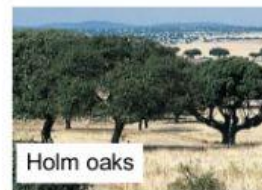

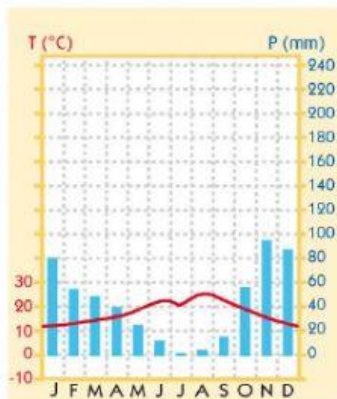

2. What climate zones can you find on Earth? Write their names.

3. Indicate whether these statements are true (T) or false (F):

- ☐ - The climate is colder in areas near the sea.
- ☐ - The climate depends on the altitude and the relief of an area.
- ☐ - The geographical factors that affect climate are altitude, land relief, latitude and distance from the sea.
- ☐ - Latitude can be north and south.
- ☐ - Latitude refers to the distance from the Poles to any location on Earth.

4. Climates in Spain.

.- Look at the weather chart and the images, what climate do they refer to?

Climate zone	Climate	Vegetation
Atlantic
Mediterranean
Mediterranean-continental
Mountain
Subtropical

5. Drag.

Humidity

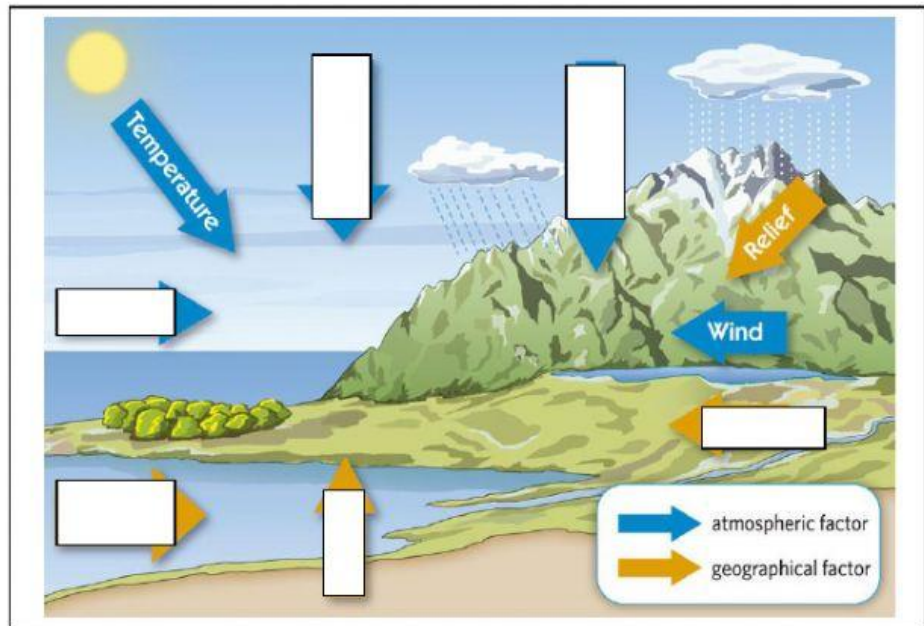

Altitude

Latitude

Precipitation

Pressure

Distance from the sea

6. Match.

Houses have thick walls, very small windows and flat roofs. Towns need to be close to oases. People wear loose clothes to protect from the sun and heat.

Houses are painted in bright colours. It gets dark very early in winter. Towns are located on the coast. People wear heavy clothes and boots to avoid cold.

There is a pleasant climate and low rainfall. Temperatures are mild. Most days the weather is sunny. It is densely populated.

Temperatures are high and there is heavy rainfall. People wear shorts, t-shirts and loose dresses. There is a lot of vegetation. Some people work on tourism.

