

The science of surfaces

3. Write an example that describes the meaning of the words on the previous worksheet.

1. A unique experience you had on vacation

2. A practical application of something you learned in high school

3. One function of the human tongue

4. A story or book that has been adapted for a movie

5. A slippery surface

6. Something that has layers

4. Read the statements. Listen to the documentary and use three words to complete the statements about the documentary.

1. Many organisms have _____ surface structures.
2. Each surface has a special _____ that is important for the organism.
3. Scientists and engineers can _____ the structures found in nature for other applications.