

Hotel California, by The Eagles.

Fill in the gaps with the verbs in past simple, past continuous or present perfect.

On a dark desert highway
Cool wind in my hair
Warm smell of colitas
Rising up through the air
Up ahead in the distance
I _____ (see) a shimmering light
My head grew heavy and my sight grew dim
I _____ (have) to stop for the night
There she _____ (stand) in the doorway
I _____ (hear) the Mission bell
And I _____ (think) to myself
This could be heaven or this could be hell
Then she lit up a candle and she _____ (show) me the way
There were voices down the corridor
I thought I heard them say
Welcome to the Hotel California
Such a lovely place (repeats)
Plenty of room at the Hotel California
Any time of year
You can find it here
Her mind is Tiffany-twisted
She got the Mercedes-Benz
She got a lot of pretty, pretty boys
That she calls friends
How they dance in the courtyard
Sweet summer sweat

Some dance to remember
Some dance to forget
So I _____ (call) up the captain
Please, bring me my wine
He said: We _____ (have) that spirit here since nineteen sixty-nine.
And still those voices are calling from far away
Wake you up in the middle of the night
Just to hear them say
Welcome to the Hotel California
Such a lovely place (repeats)
We're livin' it up at the Hotel California
What a nice surprise
Bring your alibis
Mirrors on the ceiling
The pink champagne on ice
And she _____ (say):
We are all just prisoners here
Of our own device
And in the master's chambers
They gathered for the feast
They stab it with their steely knives
But they just can't kill the beast
Last thing I remember
I _____ (run) for the door
I had to find the passage back
To the place I _____ (be) before
'Relax', said the night man
We are programmed to receive
You can check out any time you like
But you can never leave!
