

1. Look at the family tree and complete the sentences.

- Betty is Brian's _____.
- Sarah is Andrew's _____.
- William is Simon's _____.
- Betty is Sarah's _____.
- Sue is Andrew's _____.
- Brian is Jane's _____.
- Sue is Simon's _____.
- Simon is Brian's _____.

2. Write the opposite.

- short hair / _____ hair
- thin lips / _____ lips
- dark hair / _____ hair
- a short boy / a _____ boy
- a thin book / a _____ book
- a big house / a _____ house

3. Choose the correct variant.

- A: _____ Mary cook well? B: No, she _____.
- A: _____ Bill dance? B: Yes, he _____.
- A: _____ Sue play football? B: No, she _____.
- A: _____ your brother speak French? B: Yes, he _____.
- A: _____ Tony and Steve paint? B: No, they _____.

4. Use the correct imperative form. Mind the sense!

- It's cold _____ the window. (close)
- _____ here! I want to talk to you! (come)
- _____ my pen. I need it. (take)
- _____ the window. It's very hot here. (close)
- _____ quiet! The father is working. (be)
- _____ the door. The cat can run out (open)
- _____ her the knife it's dangerous! (give)

5. Choose the correct variant.

- This is my mother. Look at _____. She is so beautiful in _____ new dress.
- Mr. Richards is _____ headmaster. We are afraid of _____.
- Jane is _____ best friend. We are often together. I tell _____ everything.
- My parents play the guitar very well. I love to listen to _____.
- _____ grandparents are very funny. I love _____. And I like _____ country house.